The papers which are trying to throw mud at Governor Rusk, will feel like kicking themselves out of the state the morning after election.

The Congressional convention at Green Bay did a very wise thing in voting down the prohibition party resolution which was offered by Mr. Hastings. The Congressional church has too much good work on hand to turn itself into a political body.

The Republicans of Milwaukee have organized a committee of one hundred for the campaign. Meetings will be held every Monday night at the old Milwaukee club house on Wisconsin street, between noon and election, and nothing will be left undone that will insure party success at the polls in the metropolitan city. The meeting Wednesday night, which was the first held in two years, was very largely attended and great enthusiasm prevailed. Charles A. Chapin was chosen chairman, Christopher Paulsen secretary, and Edward Sanderson chairman of the executive committee. Milwaukee, the scene of the Bob Schilling labor riots, will give Governor Rusk a big majority. It purposes endorsing him by casting the largest republican vote ever known in the history of the city.

Congressman Van Hook, of Milwaukee, refused a re-nomination because, like Hewitt, of New York, he became tired of congressional life. It happens only once or twice in a generation that a man will refuse a nomination for congress, especially when the nomination is equivalent to an election. The convention nominated ex-Mayor Thomas E. Brown, a young and popular business man, who will probably be elected. The Sentinel says of him:

The nomination is an excellent one. Mr. Brown is not only well known in the district and popular, but he is a man of intelligence and of unblemished character. As mayor of the city, he discharged his duties with ability and a conscientious regard for the public interests. In congress he will make a representative who will do credit to the city, and who can be depended upon for the faithful, honest and intelligent discharge of his duties. He represents no risk or faction, and his nomination will be given in favor of just and prudent legislation, such as commends with the public interests. Mr. Brown is a native of Milwaukee, has always lived here, and is identified with its industries. His nomination will secure the hearty approval of all republicans, and we believe it will be ratified at the ballot box.

Chairman Taylor, of the republican state central committee, made an effort to secure the services of Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, of Iowa, during the present campaign. But unfortunately her engagements are so numerous that she can not accept the invitation of the Wisconsin republicans. In answering Mr. Taylor, Mrs. Foster said:

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 4, 1886.—Hon. H. A. Taylor, Milwaukee—DEAR SIR: Your letter of September 29 is received. I am unable to comply with your request, owing to being engaged up to November 1. I sincerely regret the mental obligation of some good temperance people which leads them to suppose really to a holy cause to impair and even sacrifice the best interests of temperance legislation in a vain attempt to build up a political party which shall some time event and enforce desired legislation against the saloon.

I hope Wisconsin will follow Maine in a clear majority for law and order as represented by Governor Rusk, and for the principles of national progress of which the republican party has been and still is the champion. Yours sincerely, J. ELLEN FOSTER.

Mrs. Foster is a very bright woman, an orator of splendid power, and is one of the ablest temperance advocates in this country. She has the right idea about the third party movement as will appear by the following: "I do not believe in putting up men merely to go through the motions of voting for them, and to keep up the party organization, when the result of such party organization and third party voting is to put liquor men or their sympathizers in offices of public trust."

tion, "What is the chief drawback to temperance?" Well, the various political parties which advocate it do more harm than good. The prohibitionists had rather attack a prominent republican any time than a whisky dealer. That shows how deeply interested they are. We will have to adopt the English style and go strictly upon the moral suasion doctrine, and leave it out of politics.

Neither Mr. Gough nor any of his friends ever questioned the correctness of that interview. The paragraph which the Gazette reproduces, hits the nail squarely on the head. Mr. Gough seemed to understand the prohibitionists pretty well when he said that they would rather attack a republican than a whisky dealer. This is the spirit of the prohibitionists in Wisconsin, and it is the spirit they manifest everywhere. Instead of making war on saloons, they make war on prominent republicans who are temperance men and temperance workers.

TWO THINGS THAT SHOULD BE DONE.

There are two things of much importance that should be done. Governor Rusk should be re-elected by a majority of fifty thousand on the second of November, and on the same day the Chicago anarchists should be hanged. This would put an end to labor riots and to bomb throwing.

The people of Wisconsin have the right idea in regard to this matter. They have made up their minds to rebuke socialism and anarchy by giving Jerry Rusk the biggest majority that was ever given a candidate in this state. There is business in this purpose. It means that the better class of democrats, who love law and order and desire to protect the rights of property as well as the rights of labor, shall join the republicans who desire the same thing in endorsing a state official who had the foresight as well as the backbone to do his duty at one of the most critical times that was ever known in Wisconsin. This spirit largely prevails in this state that there is every reason to believe that the endorsement of Rusk will be grand enough to cover Wisconsin with lasting honor.

Let this be done, and on the day when the silent ballots are doing a splendid work in Wisconsin for the safety of government and the protection of life and property, let the Chicago murderers pay the extreme penalty for their crime of creating anarchy and taking life. When these two things shall have been done and done well, there will be no more riots and bomb-throwing in Wisconsin and Illinois.

THE DEATH OF THOMAS B. SCOTT.

The Hon. Thomas B. Scott, of Merrill, Wis., died at his home on Thursday, after an illness of several months. Mr. Scott was one of the best known men in Wisconsin. He had been extensively engaged in the lumber business or many years, and had also taken an active part in the republican politics of the state, and had served in the senate and the assembly, and had been senator for ten years, and during his last term was president pro tem. of that body. It is said that no man in the state, unless it be William T. Price or Senator Sawyer, had been so long and so extensively identified with the lumbering interests of Wisconsin. But he was a generous man and had not accumulated an estate worth more than one million.

About two years ago Mr. Scott's health began to decline, and finally it was discovered that he had Bright's disease and in such a form as to baffle the skill of physicians. So dreadful did this seem to Mr. Scott that one day he said, "I would give every dollar I have in the world if I could exchange places with my poorest neighbor." More than once did Vanderbolt express himself in much the same way in regard to his own health. When he looked at his millions, piled up mountain high, and then saw the rugged constitution of a laboring man, he felt like Scott that he would give all he had for that soundness of health which would give him a peaceful assurance that he was in no immediate danger of sudden death. This proves, that as a rule, men who in health strive for that which in sickness they prize the least.

SPECIMENS OF DEMOCRATIC POLITICS.

Two or three days ago the Oshkosh Times, a democratic newspaper, concluded to take a hand in the fight in the Second congressional district, and this is what it said in regard to Mr. Delaney, the democratic candidate for congress:

While on the train on his way to Chicago last week Mr. A. K. Delaney, in the course of a conversation concerning the candidacy for congress in the Second district of the Hon. Richard Guenther, remarked to a gentleman who resides in this city, "It is as good a thing as I want to have that G—d—n Dutch son of a b—h come down here and run against me for congress."

This style of profane rhetoric and low vulgarity is peculiar to the Delaney ring of politicians, and the chief stock in trade of the "Dodge county gang."

Mr. Delaney will certainly be accommodated. Mr. Guenther is preparing to move on his rotten works, and when he does the air will be filled with the profane howls and execrations of the "Dodge county gang."

Mr. Guenther, however, is a gentleman and will conduct his campaign as such, and under no circumstances will be degraded to the vulgar brutality characteristic of Delaney.

for Governor Rusk this fall. This is a good sign. It is evidence that there is a healthier political sentiment clustering around our politics, and that the better democratic element and the republican party, will not endorse methods that are rotten nor candidates that are bad.

POWER OF "INFLUENCE."

AN OHIO PROSECUTOR MAKES THE SUGGESTIVE DISCOVERY

That Only the Poor and Uninfluential Are Sure of Feeling the Grip of the Law—Grave Charges Against a Grand Jury—Indictments in the Ohio Post-tertiary Cases—Criminal Record.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 8.—The grand jury of the county reported Thursday finding two indictments against Judge Samuel P. Allen, for embezzlement and bribery while in office, being ex-Deputy Wardens Marmont and ex-Superintendent of State Shops Samuel Perry, who is a brother-in-law of ex-Governor Healey, and served through his administration. There were no indictments found in the election forgery cases at the penitentiary, which the jury considered for three days, and upon which a great deal of direct testimony

The feature of the report of the jury was the address of the prosecuting attorney, in which he called the attention of the judge to the fact that the jury had been tampered with by a high in social and official position, and that they had been tampered with justice. In this connection he held that the poor classes received strict attention by the grand jury, but when it came to the case of Judge Allen, there was no one trying to secure indictments, but the grand jury system in its present condition in this country. The prosecutor stated that evidence of a most conclusive nature had been placed before the jury in regard to the forgery cases and other high crimes, but that nothing could be accomplished with the outside influence which was brought to bear. He concluded by stating that he would ask the court to call a special grand jury, and that he would have arrested and tried in a local justice the parties connected with the election forgery, considering this to be the only manner in which he could secure their presence in court for trial. He also would secure other arrests of those connected with crimes at the penitentiary. He expected to have them bound over so that they would be in readiness to appear before the special grand jury which is to be called.

MIDDLE AGES REDIVIVUS.

An Outbreak of Religious Bigotry at a Detroit Funeral.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 8.—A new phase of the recent Polish riots unexpectedly turned up Thursday. On Tuesday Mrs. Pezdek, who with her husband had been a faithful adherent of the deceased priest Kolosinski, died of typhoid fever. The usual certificates were given by the city health officers, and on Wednesday the funeral procession started for Mt. Carmel cemetery, the chief concern being to get the body of the deceased into the cemetery as soon as possible. At the entrance to the cemetery the procession was stopped by the superintendent of the grounds, who demanded a certificate of permission from the priest of the parish in which the dead woman had lived. The procession halted at the gates while a friend of the family returned to the Polish quarter to secure the required permit. He applied to Father Kowalski, the spiritual successor of Kolosinski, but when many of the latter's old parishioners have steadfastly refused to accept, the Pezdek family among others. Domrowski refused the request, and the funeral procession was compelled to return to the house. Late in the day an attempt was made to bury the body in other Roman Catholic cemeteries, and this was continued with repeated failures until there had been four formal funeral processions with the body of Mrs. Pezdek. The corpse was finally returned to the house Thursday, where it now lies in a semi-putrid condition. These facts became known in the Polish quarter, and early Thursday afternoon a great crowd of Poles collected near the residence of Domrowski, shouting and yelling and threatening vengeance should he venture on the street. The police were notified, and by an hour's hard work managed to clear the street and prevent a repetition of the riotous scenes of several months ago. Thursday evening several prominent Poles consulted an attorney with a view of compelling the priest to grant permission to bury Mrs. Pezdek's body in some Catholic cemetery. His relatives are determined that she shall not be in an unconsecrated ground.

THE DAILY DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

A Couple of Temperance Boys Visit the Wages of Sin—A Mysterious Case.

THOMAS, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Frank Borington, a druggist of Gloversville, and a married man of about 45 years of age, was found lying on his back and dying in the road near Spunkys Point, below Johnsons and Gloversville, at 4 o'clock Thursday morning. Subsequently it was learned that Borington was an actor in a double tragedy. Wednesday afternoon he drove up to William Crocker's, about two miles north of Gloversville, and suggested a room for the night. Just about dark he again drove up to Crocker's, accompanied by a woman. Crocker went to their room Thursday morning. He opened the door and found the woman lying in the bed dead. Borington had let some time during the night. He was found about three miles from Crocker's. The case is very mysterious. The woman was the wife of Louis Crocker, a box-maker who works in Gloversville. Borington died at 10:15 o'clock Thursday morning.

The Strunk-Hoverer Tragedy.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Oct. 8.—The seventh day's proceedings in the Strunk-Hoverer murder trial were resumed Thursday morning. Crocker was in attendance. Women will persist in trying to get in, but are positively denied admission on account of the disgusting nature of the testimony. Among the witnesses Thursday was James Shepley, who stated under oath that he caught Charles W. Hoover and Mrs. Strunk in a compromising position in the parlors of the Baptist church at an unbecomingly late hour of the night. The state will endeavor to impeach Shepley's testimony. Shepley attempted to make a personal attack on Prosecutor Burke, who was interrupted. The bulk of the evidence goes to show that Strunk was insane when the deed was committed, and the opinion is that he will be cleared on this plea.

Down Looking Up Again.

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—Two indictments against the Rev. W. W. Down, charging adultery with respectively Mrs. Taylor and Alice Dempsey, are pending in the superior criminal court. Thursday Miss Dempsey appeared before District Attorney Stevens, and in writing retracted all statements previously made by her before the grand jury. The indictment found on her testimony will doubtless be dropped, as probably the other will be also.

Will Fill the Vaults with Silver.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 8.—Treasury department officials anticipate a steady and continuous demand for the $1 and $2 silver certificates, which, if kept up for a year or so, will result in putting $10,000,000 or $20,000,000 of them in circulation. If this amount is put out, $30,000,000 or $40,000,000 of standard silver dollars now in circulation will be returned to the treasury vaults.

A NEW LEASE OF LIFE.

When one has been suffering the agonies of a severe attack of rheumatism, neuralgia or sciatica, and relief comes, it seems as if a new lease of life had been granted. Such have been the feelings of thousands who, after trying physicians and numberless remedies, have used Atholphors and found to their great joy that this medicine fully cured these diseases.

August 10th, 1886.
Louis Schmidt, harness maker at Watertown, Wis., said to our correspondent: "While I cannot say Atholphors has cured me of my rheumatism, it has been a great benefit and has relieved me very much. I have been subject to the rheumatism for the past six years; many times afflicted so that I could not work. I first used Atholphors about three months ago and experienced very quick relief. I used it all about six bottles. Where did you first learn of this medicine was useful?"

"It was recommended to me through Mr. Edwards' use, a farmer living about ten miles from here; he was much worse than me. Used only three bottles and was completely cured. I consider it the best medicine I ever used and expect to use more of it."

Sturgis, Mich.
I have had an excellent sale for Atholphors from the time of its first introduction and in every case with most satisfactory results. I call to mind one case in particular of a young lady afflicted with rheumatism who had been treated by our best physicians unsuccessfully, but who obtained relief by using Atholphors upon my recommendation. I have no hesitation in recommending it as a specific in most cases of rheumatism and neuralgia.

H. L. ANTHONY, Druggist.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The republican ward caucus will be held at the usual place of meeting on Friday evening October 18th, at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of electing delegates to the senatorial convention to be held at the court house Friday, Oct. 15. By ORDER WARD COMMITTEES.

RECEPTION.

—Ice cream to-night at Skinner's.
—The street cars continue to do a good business.
—Republican caucuses this evening at 7:30 o'clock.
—The Knights of Labor dance to-night at the Rifles Armory.
—Mr. A. Golling will serve the supper for the Knights of Labor party this evening.
—Patrick Connors remains dangerously sick and it is feared that he cannot live.

—The Young Men's Quadrille club assembled at the Rifles armory on Thursday evening, October 14th.

—W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A. R., regular semi-monthly session this evening at post headquarters.

—The firm of A. D. Sanborn & Son, have decided to retire from the grocery business. Read their announcement in another column.

—Janesville seems quite metropolitan around the depot even now. When the Evansville "cut off" is finished, she will be even more so.

—Who says that Janesville is not progressive? Within a very few days past over half a load of broken stone has been dumped on Milwaukee street.

—To-morrow night the first exhibition of the Magic Mirror will take place at Lapping's hall. It will be new, novel, and entertaining. Don't fail to see it.

—People's Lodge No. 400, Independent Order of Good Templars, assemble in regular weekly session this evening—lodge room in Court Street M. R. church block.

—The members of Janesville Concordia society are arranging to give one of their pleasant public dancing parties at Concordia hall, on Monday evening, October 18th.

—The Court Street literary club will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the lecture room. An interesting programme will be presented. A cordial invitation to everybody.

—The members of Rock Assembly, Knights of Labor, will entertain their friends at the Rifles armory this evening. An all night dance will be given. Tickets only fifty cents.

Oysters, tea, coffee, etc.—delicious temperance drinks for the Knights of Labor—can be had at Golling's restaurant to-night. Dance, boys, then take your girls and have some oysters.

—A very pleasant reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Peterson Wednesday evening. Their handsome residence was well filled with guests and the affair proved very enjoyable.

—The general public who have found the North Fourth street bridge to be a great benefit, and constantly used it since it was thrown open, should not fail to drop their mite into the contribution box and help pay for the building.

—The Recorder gives signs of climbing up to its former position astraddle of the fumes. It seems to find choosing between democracy and prohibition a difficult matter. We are glad, very glad to see our contemporary begin to endorse the "cold water only" doctrine.

—The list of voters in the second ward, as prepared by the election inspectors at their first meeting, is published in this issue of the Gazette. Voters who fail to find their names on the list should remember and register at the next meeting of the board—October 26th and 27th.

—The Salvation Army deserves praise for one thing—the members never pick out the soft places to work in. This morning one of them spent nearly twenty minutes trying to regenerate Deacon Bill Monroe enough so that he would take a "Car Yar." It was a hopeless task.

—Remember the prohibition speech this evening at Lapping's hall by Hon. John M. Olin. He is a fluent speaker and very entertaining and instructive. The speaking will begin at 7:30, preceded by vocal music. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

—Some time ago Will H. Davis was called to Milton by the serious illness of his mother. Yesterday morning the sufferer closed her eyes in death and to-day all of her that was mortal was laid at rest not to be disturbed until the last day shall come.

—There is likely to be a war made against the slaughter houses that are situated on the river bank. The state law provides severe penalties for anyone who maintains such an establishment, and also provides a fine for city officers who allow the statute to be violated.

—The Salvation Army rioters from Beloit are about to have separate trials, even if Judge Patten did not agree with them. George W. Ford and Martin Deen have taken a change of venue to the circuit court on the claim of prejudice. The two others will come before the municipal court on Monday for their trial.

—George Trewith was in a condition known as "drunk and disorderly" last night, and as a consequence he found a resting place with the sheriff. This morning Judge Patten told him to go back and make his general home a more extended visit and mentioned something to John Monzie, the clerk, about "putting him in for ten days."

—The force of clerks in what is now F. S. Winslow's grocery has been enlarged, and the store is being thoroughly renovated. A. P. Davies and E. Gillespie will remain for some time to come assisting the new proprietor in getting settled. It is probable that when Mr. Winslow is fully ready for business, the place will hardly be recognized, as changes are being made on every hand.

—Winter is coming, at least Buchholz & Nowlan look at it that way for they have already shipped nearly two car loads of single cutters and have a number of orders for others. To day they shipped a wagonload to Grand Island, Nebraska, and the factory is kept busy at all times. The work that is being turned out cannot be excelled in the northwest.

The officers of secretary and recording secretary will be supplied by the sub-executive board.

The standing committees were appointed as follows:

On Foreign Work—Mrs. B. A. Clapp, Darlington; Mrs. Wm. Lindsey, Milwaukee; Mrs. F. A. Marsh, Beloit.

Out of the society's funds the maintenance of the Burmah mission is paid, and the balance goes into the general fund.

The society voted to appropriate $100 to purchase a life membership in the Missionary union, and voted Mrs. L. Lansing said membership. This compliment to Mrs. Lansing is in recognition of her faithful and able services as secretary of the society for ten years, and was certainly well given.

The proprietors of the "Barbours" tobacco, Barbours, N. C., write:—"Dr. Barbours' Cigar" says "just our drugstore can't keep supplied."

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 49 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with south wind.

At one o'clock p. m. the register was 53 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with southwest wind. For corresponding hours one year ago the register was 37 and 54 degrees above zero.

PACKERS STRIKE.

Against Ten Hours for a Day's Work.

Estimated that 20,000 Men Will Be Out by Night.

Merchants' Trouble Anticipated.

(Special to the Gazette.)
Chicago, Oct. 5.—The employees of the Chicago Packing and Provision company, Fowler's and N. H. Selberhorst's packing houses, to the number of three thousand men, went out on a strike Friday morning, because the employers would not take down the notice of resuming ten hours for a day's work, commencing October 11th. It is expected that before night fully twenty thousand men of the various packing houses in Chicago, will be out on a strike, and serious trouble is expected.

The notices in question were posted yesterday in all the stockyards packing houses, and were to the effect that on and after next Monday the hours of work would be ten instead of eight as is now the rule. The notices were signed by nineteen firms, comprising all the packers of consequence in Chicago.

The Chicago & Northwestern Railway company will sell excursion tickets to the Chicago exposition as follows: October 5th and 6th, good to return until October 11.

October 12th and 13th, good to return until October 18.

How Different People Travel.

Have you noticed how some people enter a car and how they sit? A lady will walk past a dozen vacant seats, and then the entire length of the car, then come back again and take one of the seats and sit just passed, and just exactly like the one she leaves; never actually seated at home or abroad.
